

Fall 2024 AMDA Institutional Enrollment Profile

This report describes AMDA's current enrollment for the Fall 2024 term. AMDA's Office of Institutional Research provides this report in order for AMDA faculty and staff to have a better understanding of both of its campuses and the current population of AMDA students. Sections of the report focus on:

- Fall 2024 Undergraduate Enrollment Profile
- Fall 2024 First Semester Entering Student Enrollment Profile
- Fall 2024 AOS/Certificate Alumni Enrollment Profile
- Fall 2024 Graduate Enrollment Profile

Students are profiled according to academic and demographic data. Categories include campus; current status (active, withdrawn, term break); semester level; area of curricular focus; degree type; academic program; gender; race/ethnicity; country of origin; previous education; and by financial aid.

The Fall 2024 Enrollment Profile describes all current AMDA students across campuses, degree levels, and program versions. Enrollment numbers were pulled at the beginning of Week 3 and after the add/drop period.

At-a-glance, the total headcount of AMDA students, by campus and degree level for Fall 2024 is:

Fall 2024 Enrollment Profile

The following section provides the profile of AMDA undergraduate students who were registered for the Fall 2024 semester. This section of the profile does not include AMDA's Graduate students. For a description of those students, see the graduate profile section. This section also includes spotlights on AMDA's Fall 2024 entering cohort as well as AMDA's AOS and Certificate Alumni students.

Note: we are using biological sex terminology for this section of the report to align with our data but this may not actually mean we know the true gender identification of our students.

By Race / Ethnicity

All Undergraduates	Los Angeles	New York	Online	All Campuses

US Nonresident	12%	12%	5%	12%
White	27%	33%	37%	30%
Fall 2024 Enrollment	737	683	19	1439

Fall 2024 Entering Student Profile

The following section focuses on students who are entering their first semester this Fall. 21% of students on our Los Angeles campus this semester are starting their first semester, and 41% of students on our New York campus are starting their first semester this Fall.
