

AMDA Gap 2026-27 Supplemental Food Plan (SFP) Important Information

AMDA recognizes that being a student in New York City can be stressful - and costly - and being hungry may only add to the stress!

AMDA NY's Supplemental Food Plan is now available for Gap students! While this declining balance meal plan is not meant to carry you day-and-night, it's a great option to ensure that you're able to have a meal and/or snack(s) on campus throughout your busy day of classes and rehearsals.

- 8 week program - $500
- 3 week program - $250

Frequently Asked Questions:

What is the SFP Card?

- Think of the SFP card as a debit card with a declining balance that can be used at the Baguette & Co. Café on the 3rd floor of the 61st Street building, and the Snackford Café at the Stratford Arms Dormitory. When you purchase an item, the amount you spend is subtracted from your balance.

Is the SFP required?

- The Supplemental Food Plan is not required and can be added up to two weeks prior to your intended start date.

How should I use the SFP?

- Students are encouraged to use their declining balance in whatever way works for them. For example, a student may spend $50 on Monday at Baguette & Co. Café or the Snackford Café and $5 on Tuesday. There is no cap on how much a student can spend in one day. There is no minimum, either.

Is the SFP considered a full meal plan?

- No, the SFP is meant to supplement a student's daily food allowance. Since students will be on-campus (in classes or rehearsals) most of the day, the SFP is a practical, supplemental plan.

How can I find out my balance, and add Dining Dollars to my account?

- You may view your balance by accessing your meal card link, emailing Baguette & Co. at thecafeamda@gmail.com or reaching out to the NY Financial Aid department via email at financialaidny@amda.edu. Students may add Dining Dollars to their account at the café on the 3rd floor of the 61st Street building.

How is Baguette & Co. affiliated with AMDA?

- Baguette & Co. is operated and owned by Baguette and Co. However, AMDA has an excellent working relationship with them, and they communicate on a regular basis to collaboratively ensure the best product (cost and quality) is being offered to our students, faculty, administration and staff.

If I withdraw from the AMDA Gap Program, will I be refunded the unused balance of my SFP from Baguette & Co.?

- The Supplemental Food Plan balance is non-refundable. In the event of withdrawal from the program, any unused portion of the plan will not be reimbursed.

Will my Dining Dollars roll over to my first semester should I choose to attend AMDA College?

- Unused SFP funds will not roll over from the Gap program to the College.

Where can I use my SPF Declining Balance Card?
